

TBS
CERTIFICATE OF COMPLIANCE WITH COMMERCIAL LIMITS FOR CHILDREN'S PROGRAMMING

I, Toni Millner, in my capacity as Assistant General Counsel and Vice President – Kid Vid Compliance for Turner Broadcasting System, Inc. ("Turner"), hereby certify that for the period from October 1, 2018 to December 31, 2018:

- 1) I am familiar with the statutory limits of the Children's Television Act of 1990 (the "Act") and the FCC regulations implementing those limits (no more than 12 minutes per hour of commercial matter may be broadcast during children's programming* on weekdays, and no more than 10 ½ minutes per hour on weekends).
- 2) As a standard practice, Turner formats any children's programming (as defined under the Act) within the commercial limits set forth in the Act to the extent the FCC regulations are applicable to the programming.
- 3) To the best of my information, knowledge, and belief, no children's programming aired in the period noted above on TBS with the exception of three programs, Dr. Seuss' How the Grinch Stole Christmas, An Elf's Story: The Elf on the Shelf and Elf Pels: Santa's St. Bernards Save Christmas.
- 4) To the best of my information, knowledge, and belief, TBS formatted the programs within the commercial limits set forth with the Act when they were telecast on the network on November 17th and December 9th.

Certified by me this 7th day of January, 2019.

Toni Millner
Assistant General Counsel and
Vice President—Kid Vid Compliance
Turner Broadcasting System, Inc.

*"Children's programming" for the purpose of the commercial limits means programs originally produced and telecast for an audience of children 12 years old and under.
